Materialities in/of the Environment
the alice kaplan environmental humanities workshop  I  FALL 2016 fridays  I  12:00-2:00pm  I  kresge 2351  I  lunch provided

OCTOBER 7
A “Queer-Looking Compound”: Race, Abjection, and the Politics of Hawaiian Poi Hi’ilei Hobart, Postdoctoral Fellow in Indigenous and Native American Studies, Northwestern University

OCTOBER 24
The Sun is not so Central
Michael Cherney/Qui Mai
Monday, 4pm  I  Kresge 1515
note alternate time & place

OCTOBER 28
Ontologies of Water: Looking for El Nino on Peru’s North Coast
Mary Weismantel, Professor of Anthropology, Northwestern University

NOVEMBER 11
Cultivating Subjects in the Neo-Assyrian Empire
Melissa Rosenzweig, Assistant Professor of Anthropology & Classics, Miami University (Ohio)

To be added to the Environmental Humanities Workshop listserv, contact organizer Amanda Logan (amanda.logan@northwestern.edu)

made possible with generous support from the Kaplan Institute for the Humanities